*We Present
the 1950
Quill Pen*

Theme...

Now is the moment to pass through the door for the last time. Soon the latch will click and lock. Let's pause a minute and look back. Through the keyhole our treasured memories parade before us.

In Dedication . . .

Mighty glad she's here! Mighty glad she shares with us her warm understanding, sparkling humor, and optimistic outlook when our problems seem grave. Not only does she lighten our personal difficulties, but she also imparts knowledge of the accusative, Caesar, and Vergil as painlessly as possible.

Result: To you, Miss "B.", with our fondness and admiration for you as a friend and teacher, we dedicate the 1950 Quill Pen.

Class History

As we turn the pages of our Salem Scrapbook, the many souvenirs bring back cherished memories of all the wonderful things we have done during the past four years. From these remembrances, we weave the story of the class of 1950, which began with the letters received before we arrived and now ends with our graduation diplomas.

Opening the Scrapbook, we recall that September day in the fall of 1946 when sixteen scared Freshmen entered the portals of Salem Academy for the first time. With a feeling of importance at our first class meeting, we elected Aurelia Gray, President; Mary Kathryn Burton, Vice-President; Jean Borders, Secretary; and Ann Kester, Treasurer. With the help of Miss Bibb, our sponsor, we freshmen at once made plans for activities to show the rest of Salem that we were not an ordinary class. Our enthusiasm and ideas resulted in the Freshman Carnival, our main project for the year. The feature attraction was two blind dates awarded as prizes for two lucky girls. During a Chapel program, we presented a skit in pantomime entitled "Pokeyhuntas." At the end of the year, a farewell party to the Seniors was given in the form of a marshmallow roast. We gave an electric clock for the library, and money was donated to the World Student Service Fund.

Turning the pages, we find reminders of the many activities during our years as Sophomores. Under the leadership of our President, Caroline Van Zandt; Vice-President, Mary Kathryn Burton; Secretary, Sis Roddy; and Treasurer, Clara Ashe, we gave a spaghetti supper in the form of the "Copabana Night Club." A floor show of song and dance was the highlight of the evening. Guided by Miss Rice, our faculty advisor, we sophomores sold fudge on the halls and brought back laundry from across campus. Since all of us had been thrilled with the fascinating movie, "Gone With the Wind," we gave its book form to the library during Book Week. In the spring, on the afternoon of Junior-Senior, the social room, decorated with colorful, fresh flowers and Spanish moss, and filled with soft strains of music coming from the orchestra on the stage, was the scene of the Sophomore Tea Dance. A dozen red roses were presented to the queen of the beauty contest which we had conducted for the past two weeks. Our gift to the school was money with which to start a Modern Book Fund. A sum was also contributed to the World Student Service Fund.

Much of the Scrapbook is filled with the events of our junior year. Everything led up to the all-important Junior-Senior. As officers, Bettie Allison was chosen to be our class President; Jean Borders, Vice-President; Anne Covington, Secretary; and Teena Greer, Treasurer. Our sponsor, Miss Gueth, helped us to present a fashion show before Christmas at which timely holiday clothes were modeled from Montaldo's. In February, a card party was given in the social room and prizes were awarded. Again, we held a fashion show—this time in the spring with clothes from Snead and Craven. To supplement these projects, coffee and doughnuts were sold on Sunday mornings to sleepy-heads; cake from the local bakeries was taken around on the halls, and refreshments at the various school activities were sold. On April 30, after many weeks of preparation, sixty Juniors and Seniors danced in the gym to the strains of "Midnight Masquerade." A gaily decorated mask, the color of her dress, was given as a favor to each senior. With the money that remained, a contribution was given to the World Student Service Fund, and electric clocks were bought for the classrooms.

The last portion of the Scrapbook bulges with the many favors, clippings, and other souvenirs we have collected during our senior year. Jean Borders, having been elected as our President the preceding spring, served with the other new officers: Aurelia Gray, Vice-President; Barbara Zeigler, Secretary; and Ann Williams, Treasurer. At the Birthday Banquet, at the first of school, we each cut a slice of cake and realized that this would be the last year to sing "Standing at the Portals." Friday, October 14, was Senior Day, and we thoroughly enjoyed taking over the jobs and the privileges of the faculty. The most exciting event of the fall was the Senior Ring Banquet, at which, much to everyone's surprise, we received the long awaited class rings. With the Christmas spirit in December, came the senior bazaar, where Christmas gifts are sold from the leading Winston-Salem stores. Also, at Christmastime, orders for Moravian cookies were taken. On the morning of the last day of school before Christmas, the seniors went caroling through the building. Again, the Junior-Senior was a highspot of the year, but this time, the half-century class promenaded in the "lead-out" to the tune of "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody." Last minute cramming is over; exams have been completed with many a sigh and a groan; our names have been entered in the Senior Farewell Book at the Quill Pen Banquet; and graduation is now at hand. As we close our Scrapbook, we know it is a living reminder of the joyous days we have spent at Salem. Grateful thanks go to our faculty advisor, Miss Mary Moran, who has helped to make this year a great success. With mixed emotions, of joy and sorrow, we leave behind these happy days here at Salem to begin another Scrapbook of the years to come.

Salem Academy

In the name of Miss Weaver

Amen

To whom it may concern:

We, the Senior Class of 1950, being in high spirits and unsound mind do hereby declare, assert, relate, and publish this document in testament of our last wishes and endowments to the world.

Article I

To the incoming Senior Class we leave our patience (?) and privileges.

Article II

Clara Ashe wills her ability to blush to Ann Currie.

Beanpole Benders leaves her "tomorrow's" diet to Raxann for that extra figure appeal.

Butts Burton and Caroline Van Zandt leave their gay week-ends at V.M.I. and "I'm so upset!" to Sarah Griffith.

Aurelia Gray wills her wardrobe to Elizabeth Christian, who really doesn't need it.

Jaan Girard gives her beloved hackey stick to the Purples so they'll always be the winners.

Melissa Green gives her ability to shag to Itsie Masterton.

Teena Greer and Calin Daugherty bequeath their U. T. football letters (which they hope to get next year) to anybody who can make the team as well as they can.

Julia Grier gives her auburn tresses to Leon Gold in case Leon wants to change colors again.

Gennifer Johnson and Denise du Gardein leave their Spanish accents and Jose Dominquez to 3 E. B.

Julia Kester thankfully gives twenty pounds to Ann Altwater.

"Mutt" Myers and "Jeff" Saunders leave their morning walk points to Sally Whitner and Betty Shufard.

Cannie Neal and Anne Covington bequeath their chemistry formulae to Einstein.

Emily Neil gives her piercing screams and beautiful legs to anyone bald enough to take them.

Margaret Padgett wills her witty remarks to Carolyn Arwaad.

Sara Gert Page leaves her mail from Davidsen to herself, since she'd like to get more of it.

Margaret Randolph bequeaths her scatter-brains to Ja Ann Tatum.

Nardie Rumph leaves her lovely attitude to all new Salemites.

Susan Scatt wills History of Art to the two Marys, Nelson and Wharton.

Nancy Sibley gives her South Carolina accent to Lynn Williams.

Margie Spigel bequeaths the 1 C.S. phone to anybody who'll get to use it after she's talked the mouth-piece to death.

Nancy Tucker leaves her books to Mary Bambalis.

Sara Tullach gives her suntan to Dixey Andrews, who'd probably just add a few more freckles.

Anne Williams gives her steady inflow of Lenair mail to Marlene Hedrick and Caroline Blackwelder.

Barbara Zeigler wills her ability to kiss on the stage to Ann Emery.

Sarah Habsan leaves her trips back and forth to Bluefield to those who have the bus.

Article III

1 C.S. leaves their Coffee Club to the Faculty.

2 C.S. leaves their ability to guess the mystery tune for free pictures to future 2 C.S.er's.

Class Prophecy

"Hello everybody! This is Suella Parsnips coming to you from Knoxville, Tennessee, the hillbilly capital of the world. Tonight, we will bring to you tempting tidbits and interesting sidelights about the world's most extraordinary group of women—the 1950 Salem Academy graduates. But first, a word of advice:

BM/SPM, BM/SPM! !

"Yes, be a moron — smoke Pale Males! Do you want a treatment instead of a treat?? Then switch to Pale Males and become a paler male. For your safety and enjoyment, each Pale Male is SWIETZERIZED—a new secret process whereby each Pale Male is dipped into H<sub>2</sub>O and washed!

"As Mr. L. A. Speedball of Golddigger, S. C. says 'I've been smoking (gasp) Pale Males' Cigarettes for nigh onto (wheeze) three weeks and now I'm about to (rattle, choke, gasp) die!'

"Yes, with men who know tobacco best, it's Pale Males 2 to 1,500,001.

"And now back to Suella and our mailbag for tonight.

"My first letter comes from Boola Boola, Africa. Julia Grier writes 'Dear Mary Kathryn—'. Oh dear! News must travel to Africa very slowly, for I am now known to all as Suella Parsnips. My, my, isn't this interesting. Julia, the second Dr. Livingston, seems to be having trouble holding on to her red hair while trying to convert Africa's savages.

"And while we're still so far from home, I have a letter postmarked Cairo, Egypt, from Aurelia Gray, Head of the International Traveling Bureau. She has decided that she prefers Egyptian princes to Davidson men.

"Oh yes, here's a very newsy letter from my old Salem Roommate, Caroline Van Zandt. We should be very proud of Caroline. She was recently elected national head of the D.A.R. (Dames After Reducing). She writes us that several of the I C.S. brains, Colin, Teena, and Sis, are still working on their Ph.D.'s and Mrs.'s at U.T. It seems that they love the school so much that they can't bear the thought of graduation. At a recent U.N.C. football game, Caroline saw none other than Anne Williams starring as tailback for the Tar Heels. The press is raving that Anne is the best tailback since Choo Choo Justice, and that she is a sure shot for All-America.

"Another one of our famous society women is Anne Covington. Anne is now president of the S.S.W. (Society for Stout Women). We always knew that Anne would be a big success.

"If you are planning to visit New York soon, here are some attractions you can't afford to miss. Of all the Broadway shows, the one you must see is "Ambushed," that sensational, romantic drama starring Melissa Green. After this show, perhaps you will have time to see the last floor show at Billy Rose's 'Diamond Horseshoe.' There you will find the great modern dancer, Joan Girard. She is supposed to be better than Martha Graham. For another place of interest, be sure to visit the Metropolitan Museum of Art and see the prized masterpiece of modern art by Margaret H. Padgett titled 'The Teabag.' Margaret is acclaimed the greatest artist in the world today. We have reason to be proud of her.

"Salem graduates have been successful in a wide variety of fields. Our contribution to politics is two lady senators, Sara Tulloch and Margaret Randolph. They have been busily "lobbying" in the Mayflower, trying to reduce the age limit for presidential candidates, since none of the available women candidates will admit to being 35 or older. Nora Jane Rumph became a millionaire overnight when she patented her atomic machine for making Yo-yo quilts quickly. Another prosperous woman is Eleanor Myers, who now operates the Queen City Inn at Myrtle Beach. She has made it an ideal spot for the future Salem house parties. Gennifer Johnson has become renowned in the field of psychiatry. One of her recent patients was Jean Borders. Jean, who was always trying to make mountains out of molehills, was successfully cured.

"Sarah Hobson and her husband are making plenty of dough now in the bakery business.

"I know that you will all agree that Clara Ashe's decision to give up her singing career is a definite blow to radio and television. Everyone will certainly miss 'The Rusty Smog.'

"Salem Academy has a new Spanish teacher—Senorita 'Mejor' Saunders. One of her very adept pupils is Nancy Tucker. Nancy says she has never learned Spanish better than under 'Mejor.' While we are speaking of foreign languages, Denise du Gardein has been putting her great linguistic knowledge to good use. Denise has been the U. S. Foreign Minister to six different countries in the last few years. Perhaps the reason she likes the job so much is that she has "friends" in almost every country.

"Undoubtedly the most famous of all our celebrities is Professor Julia Kester, the atomic genius. Dr. Kester received the Nobel Prize for her amazing theory, 'Perpetual Motion.' Remember how Julia used to practice this theory back at Salem?

Class Prophecy—Continued

"Several of the Salem girls have decided to be home front heroines. Sarah Page toured France for several manths, but then came back to Davidson. She says she likes the scenery better there. Marjorie Spigel has become the mother of a child prodigy. Taking after his mother, little Steve learned to talk at the tender age of four manths. The most industrious of our housewives is Emily Neil. She spends all her time knitting afghans for the "future" — now present—husband's dogs and trying to keep the names of her four sets of triplets straight. Incidentally, Emily's husband is a dog catcher. Carale Keith is happily married, and she and her husband are co-heads of the Highway Department of Safety. Isn't that an appropriate job?

" 'Frenchie' Sibley has decided to end all of her troubles by remaining 'Miss Nancy Sibley.' She writes a famous syndicated column, the motto of which is 'Tell the Truth.' Barbara Zeigler is the brains behind the works. Remember when Barbara and 'Frenchie' used to cooperate back at Salem? Sue Scott is teaching art at the University of Virginia, and from all reports, it is the perfect job for her.

"Well, folks, I guess that is about all for tonight. Wait a minute! What strange creature do I see here? —It is an Indian! (Anybody got a dictionary? What do 'how' and 'ugh' mean?) They seem to mean that he has a letter for me. It is from Squaw Connie Neal. She is married to an Indian Chieftain and is living in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin. This is really an unusual occupation.

"That's all for now, ladies and gentlemen. Remember, 'til next week, smoke Pale Males. 'They have extra length—Plenty of strength—No sag on the drag.' Until next time, this is Suella Parsnips saying 'Bye now.' "

YESTERDAYS

Though our horizons may be dark,
Dimmed by fog our future way,
Through the years our minds will turn
To joyous times of yesterday.

Backward over years we'll see
The carefree days of Salem life—
The friends we made, the things we did
That primed us for the future's strife.

Through the years our thoughts will fly
To days so bright and gay—
To yesterdays, the stepping stones
Along tomorrow's rough hewn way.

Then fly, oh mind, fly faster, faster—
Now we hear our voices singing,
Voices, strong and clear and free,
Shout: "Alma Mater, Hail to Thee!"
